

POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION AND THE BRAIN

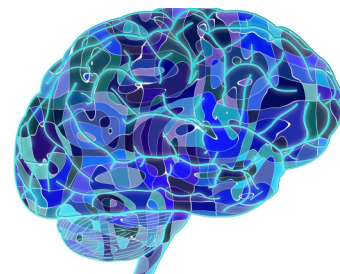

A FREE PUBLIC HEALTH LECTURE

SPONSORED BY THE CLINICAL
NEUROPSYCHOLOGY SERVICE

PRESENTED BY:
DR. CORRIE GOLDFINGER, C. PSYCH.

YOU WILL LEARN

-  Basic brain facts
-  What factors influence school success
-  How thinking skills relate to school performance
-  Practical brain-based strategies to improve thinking skills and school success

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED

For questions or to register
please contact, Michele Crossan
(905) 522-1155 ext. 36371

DETAILS

WHEN: Thursday November 3, 2016 , 5:00-6:00pm

WHERE: Lower Auditorium, West 5th Site, St. Joseph's Hospital
(West 5th and Fennel; auditorium is near the Main Entrance off West 5th)

WHO: Open to college & university students, adults considering postsecondary education, family members, healthcare professionals