The Turtle Drum Teachings

Featuring Special Guest: Grandmother Louise Kawennison Lahache

3 part holistic cultural paradigm using traditional cultural teachings as ways for understanding the natural elements of change, growth, healing, maintaining good relationships and balance for the next 7 generations

- Part 1- the four direction teachings that help us to understand ourselves and our relationships as we seek peace and balance in our lives.
- Part 2 - visualizing how to make decisions to explore positive actions to reach our goals, or solve problems, without creating damages or pain to others.
- Part 3 – bringing together the teachings of the four directions with the decision-making process for thinking through problems and making decisions for the next 7 generations.
